Alan, Teresa, and Peter,

Thank you for your comments. Feel free to get others in next week. I'm looking forward to going through them.

Have a good weekend,

Jeremy

Jeremy,

The attached document contains comments from Peter and Teresa on the methodology for the RipStream Predictive Harvest Effects Analysis. We may be sending you a few more comments early next week but, as promised, I wanted to get this to you today.

Please let us know if you have any questions regarding our comments.

Thanks for all of your hard work on this.
